ISLAMORADA, FL Keys – ICE’s annual MoradaPalooza Music Festival features great young musicians from the Keys and South Florida, and quite possibly a few rising stars among them. The event will be held Sunday, Jan. 23, at the TIB Amphitheater in Islamorada Founders Park, and runs from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. Admission is free.

“Each year we give young musicians an opportunity to experience what it’s like to play live on the big stage,” said David Feder, ICE director. “The bands always exceed our expectations. So come on down with us and enjoy the creativity these talented musicians possess.”

Bands include:

Birthday Gang

Headlining the festival is Birthday Gang, one of the most popular, fast rising South Florida bands. This band features an unusual mix of Reggae, rock, and ska, with a fiery horn section that screams Tower of Power. With a highly evolved and surprisingly sophisticated big sound, this band will have everyone dancing and smiling.

Devinshire

New to the circuit in South Florida and already causing quite a stir, this band plays a variety of genres from classic rock to alternative and pop.

Xpelled

This Homestead-based group of teenagers performs with a poise and professionalism that far exceeds their young years (average age of band members is just 15). The band fuses classic and current rock covers with a healthy dose of originals. Their stage presence and ability to draw a crowd has made them a popular fixture at major events in the South Florida area.

Up and coming band Unarmed for Victory, hailing from Miami, oozes post hardcore rock.

Appeal 2 Apathy

An alternative punk rock band from Islamorada features Frank Meulenberg, Chase Wood, and Dylan Kasheta. Everybody has high praise for these guys and they push out some great sounds.

“You are going to love this show,” said Feder. “The music fest is aimed at teens and young adults, but even the older Keys crowd will have a great time listening to these kids.”

Attendees are encouraged to bring lawn chairs and blankets, but no coolers or glass containers are allowed. Food and beverages will be available. It is an alcohol-free event. Band schedule and additional information is available at: keysice.com.

ICE is a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing quality entertainment and cultural events to Upper Keys residents and provides art, music, and dance scholarships to local students.
